2. Hitomi Hi, Yuki.
3. Yuki Ah, how're you today?
4. Hitomi Um, it's quite hot.
5. Yuki Yeah, but yesterday was so cold, cold!
6. Hitomi Yeah. Um...

II. Small Talk

7. Yuki How was your last class, Hitomi? 5 Ws and an H question
8. Hitomi Ah, yesterday I talked with, uh, three tutors 'cause, and, uh, in summer vacation, I had an opportunity to speak English with native speaker speakers. So, it's, it was very fun. How about you?
9. Yuki Ah, me. Eh, I know one person that, because we were friends before we had the Power-Up! Tutorial¹, Power-Up! Tutorial. So it was a fun time for me and for us. Uh, it's it was nice. Maybe.

III. Introducing the Topic

10. Hitomi Okay, and...please tell me about, uh, yourself.
11. Yuki Ah, I love music very much and I listen to various kinds of music. And, for example rock, pop, jazz and R&B.
12. Hitomi Mm-hm.
13. Yuki But I especially like Bump of Chicken. And, ah, many people say it's a very strange name, but, but I love them because they are very cool.
14. Hitomi Oh. Which song is do most you like most? follow-up question
15. Yuki Ah, songs? I love "K." "K!"
16. Hitomi I like it, and I like "Dandelion."
17. Yuki Ah. Me, too! When I heard, uh... Ah! When I listened to "K" the first time, I cried.
18. Hitomi Oh, okay. You were moved? follow-up question
19. Yuki Yeah, very moved.
20. Hitomi Yeah. Ah, I like music too, and also I like Bump of Chicken, but recently I like Green Day because...
21. Yuki Green Day, yeah. You have a the new album.

22. Hitomi Yeah, and “American Idiot” is a nice song, I think.
23. Yuki “American Idiot.” Mm, Green Day. Yeah.
24. Hitomi Please tell me your s... another thing about you.
25. Yuki Another things thing, ah, I live alone now, and I live in Hirabari now. Do you know where Hirabari is? follow-up question
26. Hitomi Yeah.
27. Yuki Ah, really? Uh, because... I’m from Shimane...
28. Hitomi Uh-huh.
29. Yuki ...and it’s very far from here, and I rarely go back to my hometown, so I sometimes becomes get very nervous and lonely. Mm. But now it’s okay because I have a lot of friends, so...

IV. Reintroducing the Topic

30. Yuki ...and could you tell me about yourself?
31. Hitomi I like eating food. Also, I like cooking. For example, ~~I’m~~ I’ve been working in a tavern in my hometown, Toyota City, for two years.
32. Yuki For two years?
33. Hitomi Yeah, and also, I’m working in a noodle shop.
34. Yuki A noodle shop?
35. Hitomi Yeah.
36. Yuki It tastes good? It tastes good? follow-up question
37. Hitomi Yeah.

39. Hitomi Oh, ~~hows~~ how should I say it? Tonkotsu.
40. Yuki Tonkotsu. Ah, tonkotsu. And tell me one last things thing about yourself.
41. Hitomi Yeah, I like general goods. It means zakka...
42. Yuki Zakka.
43. Hitomi ...in Japanese. And I’d like to open ~~own~~ my own shop in the near future because I like going overseas ~~to going on trip trips~~ and, so if I had ~~a-own~~ my own shop I ~~can~~ could go ~~to~~ overseas...
44. Yuki To buy...
45. Hitomi ...to buy...
46. Yuki ...general goods. Ah, really? That’s nice.
47. Hitomi Uh, I went to Australia for a month.

48. Yuki Uh, last year? follow-up question
49. Hitomi Yeah, to study English. And I have a host family in Aussie, in Australia.
50. Yuki Mm, mm, mm.
51. Hitomi I love them, so I want to meet them.
52. Yuki Again?
53. Hitomi Yeah.
54. Yuki Ah, really?
55. Hitomi Someday I want to go, go back to Australia.
56. Yuki Ah, that's nice. And you can invite, um, ~~your~~ all everyone to your shop.
57. Hitomi Yeah, I hope so.

V. Finishing

58. Hitomi Mm. Nice talking with you.
59. Yuki ~~Me, too.~~ You, too. Thank you.

1a Follow-up Questions

Asking follow-up questions is a very important conversation strategy for practicing English with your partners. It requires listening carefully to your partners and then asking a question about what they said.

Jordan I'm from New Zealand, from a city called Wellington. It is not as big as Toronto, but I like it.
Sarah I see. Does your family live there? follow-up question

You can also follow up your own comment with a question for your partner.

Jordan Well, Sarah. Tell me a little about yourself.
Sarah Um, I am from Canada, from Toronto actually. Have you heard of Toronto? follow-up question

1b Asking 5 Ws and an H Questions

Use 5 W's and an H words to help you think of follow-up questions.

WHERE

WHY

Example Follow-up Questions

What's your name? What does it mean?

Where were you born?
When did you move?

Why're you studying English?
How's it going?

Do you like sports? What's your favorite sport?

Where do you live? Who do you live with?

What do you like to cook?
How often do you cook?

Where've you been to? How long?

What're you good at?
Why?

A typical 5-step practice conversation

I. Greeting There are many ways to greet your classmates. “Hello,” for example, is more formal, and “Hi” and “Hey” are more casual.

Yuki Hi, Hitomi. (also: Hello • Hey • What’s up)
Hitomi Hi, Yuki.
Yuki Ah, how’re you today? (How’s it going)
Hitomi Um, it’s quite hot.

II. Small Talk Before talking about a topic use small talk to create a relaxed mood. You can talk about whatever you like.

Yuki How was your last class, Hitomi?
Hitomi Ah, yesterday I talked with tutors, so it was fun. How about you?
Yuki Ah, me. Uh, I know one person because we were friends before, so it was a fun time for me. ~~It’s~~ It was nice.

III. Introducing the Topic Try to introduce the topic naturally; use “So...”

Hitomi So, please tell me a little about yourself.
Yuki Ah, I love music very much, and I listen to various kinds.

Another way to introduce the topic is by bringing up the topic in small talk.

Yuki Yeah, the other day I went to a Bump of Chicken concert.
Hitomi Really? Were they here in Nagoya?
Yuki Yeah, and I was in the second row! I love their music.

IV. Reintroducing the Topic Involve your partner by reintroduce the topic using, “How about you?” or “What about you?”

Yuki And how about you? Could you tell me about yourself?
Hitomi I like eating. Also, I like cooking. I was working in a tavern.

V. Finishing Finish by saying something like, “Well, nice talking with you.” You can say what you have to do (“I’m meeting a friend for lunch.”), or where you have to go (“Sorry. I have to go to class.”).

Yuki Well, I gotta go. Nice talking with you.
Hitomi Me, too. You, too. Bye.

1. Three Things about Me – Helpful Hints

Making a Three Things about Me card will help us to get to know each other a little better. We'll use them to help us introduce ourselves and ask and answer questions about one another.

To make this card:

- 1) Think of 3 things that are special about you.
- 2) Use pictures and/or words to explain these 3 things. Try to think of English words you may need to talk about these things.

Check
this out.

Conversations in English
